Primitives by Kathy Ranks 59 on the Central Penn Business Journal Top 250 Private Companies

August 14, 2018 - Primitives by Kathy is proud to announce their appointment to the Central Penn Business Journal Top 250 Private Companies List. This list represents the companies who have experienced year over year growth and continued success.

In addition to financial growth this year, CPBJ also reviewed companies on their adoption and incorporation of new technology in their respective industries leading to increased efficiencies and improved customer service.

We are proud of our continual improvement and growth efforts to invest and incorporate such advances into our day-to-day operations. It all leads to serving our customers better – and we look forward to the future of supporting our customers to ensure their success.
